

POLICE STATION VISIT REPORT

Name of College: Alice Law College

Location: Raul Nagar, Boisar (W)

Course: LL.B – First Year

Date of Visit: 10 January 2026

Time: 1:30 PM to 2:50 PM

Place of Visit: Pachmarg Police Station, Boisar

Resource Person:

SP Nivas Sadashiv Kanase Sir

Under the Guidance of:

Principal – Dr. Shweta Choudhari

Assistant Professor – Prof. Ravina Katkar

Objective of the Visit

The objective of the police station visit was to provide practical exposure to LL.B First Year students regarding the functioning of the police department and to understand important legal concepts such as FIR, Complaint, Sections of Law, NC, Compoundable and Non-Compoundable offences.

Topics Explained

1. FIR (First Information Report): Sir explained that an FIR is the first step in the criminal justice process. It is recorded when information about a cognizable offence is received by the police.
2. Complaint: A complaint is an oral or written allegation made to a Magistrate or police authority, which may or may not relate to a cognizable offence.
3. Sections of Law: Students were briefed on how different sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and other laws are applied depending on the nature of the offence.
4. NC(Non-Cognizable Case): Sir explained that in NC cases, police cannot register an FIR or start investigation without prior permission of the Magistrate.

5. Compoundable Offences: These are offences where the victim and accused can settle the matter among themselves with or without the court's permission.
6. Non-Compoundable Offences: These are serious offences which cannot be settled privately and require full legal proceedings in court.

Learning Outcome

The visit helped students to:

- Understand the practical application of criminal law
- Gain clarity on police procedures
- Bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-life legal practice

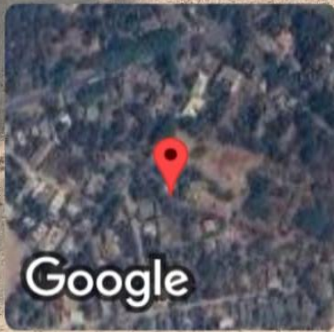

Conclusion

The police station visit was highly informative and beneficial for LL.B First Year students. The guidance provided by SP Nivas Sadashiv Kanase Sir enhanced the students' understanding of criminal law procedures. The visit successfully achieved its academic objective.
